3. Each contestant must submit 2 copies via email. One copy shall bear the author's name and address on the title page, to be retained by the committee. The remaining copy shall be unidentified, and should not contain any marks or clues to the author's identity such as pictures, references to doctors or institutions; however, the blind copy must include the title of the paper.

Copies should be e-mailed to:

kbolognese@monroec.edu OR ann.verschuuren@sunyorange.edu

4. Research papers should be from viable, professionally reviewed references, such as books, professional journals, databases, etc. Internet sources may be utilized with the file extensions .edu, .org. or .gov. Internet sources with the file extension .com or .net should be used sparingly, as these sites are not professionally reviewed and are often published for marketing, rather than education.
5. Each copy of the manuscript shall be securely fastened together in the left-hand, top margin.
6. Essays that do not meet the above qualifications will be disqualified by the committee.

PRESENTATION

The award winning essays will be on display and awards presented at the NYSSRS Annual Conference. The authors of the award winning essays will be invited to accept recognition during the quiz bowl competition.
