

New York State Society of Radiologic Sciences

2020 POSTER/DISPLAY EVALUATION SCALE

JUDGING CRITERIA: Poster displays are judged according to the following criteria:

- I. Professional/Educational value: The poster provides information of professional and educational value to radiographers and students.
- II. Originality of Subject Matter: The poster illustrates a new idea or presents information in a new, innovative style.
- III. Technical Quality and Creativity: The poster presents material in a neat, well-organized and creative manner, includes graphics and supporting material.
- IV. Presentation: Poster adheres to rules for setup and display.

3 = Meets all requirements/criteria listed

2 = Missing some (2-5) requirements/criteria

1 = Missing several (more than 5) requirements/criteria

0 = No evidence of requirement/criteria

I. Professional/Educational Value

Material is accurate and complete.	4	3	2	1	0
Material is current (references).	4	3	2	1	0
Material is clear and understandable.	4	3	2	1	0

Points _____

Comments _____

II. Originality

Poster illustrates a new innovative style.	4	3	2	1	0
Material is presented by new explanations.	4	3	2	1	0
Supporting materials are illustrative of concept.	4	3	2	1	0

Points _____

Comments _____

III. Technical Quality & Creativity

Poster graphics are included.	4	3	2	1	0
Poster is neat and well organized.	4	3	2	1	0
Poster can be read from a distance of 3 feet.	4	3	2	1	0

Points _____

Comments _____

IV. Presentation/Adherence to Contest Rules

Poster meets requirements for size.	4	3	2	1	0
Poster does not have identification of program or participants.	4	3	2	1	0
Poster/materials use exhibit space allotted and follows "subject matter", display and "installation" requirements.	4	3	2	1	0

Points _____

Comments _____

Poster # _____ Poster Title _____

Judge Name _____ Total Points _____